A SHORT HISTORY OF THE EAST-ROCKPORT
SOCIETY OF THE NEW CHURCH (written by Philip B. Cabell

About the year 1818 came to what is now the vicinity of the city of Cleveland, James Nicholson, who may be regarded under the Divine Providence as the founder or originator of the New Church in these parts.

He was born at Barnstable, Mass. April 10, 1782 and died at his home in East Rockport Township, November 13, 1859.

- - - - -

Up to the time of Mr. Nicholson's death, the little New-Church Temple in East Rockport was the only house of worship thereabouts nearer than the city.

- - - - -

In accordance with a written request signed by sixteen persons - only five of whom were males - and addressed to Rev. M. M. Carll, the "First Society of Rockport" was by that minister organized at the residence of James Nicholson, September 4, 1841.

- - - - -

On the same occasion Richard Hooper, one of the original members of the society, was admitted by Mr. Carll into the first degree of the ministry.

- - - - -

About a year later, namely, August 28, 1842, Mr. Hooper "was introduced into the second degree of the ministry (probably 'ordained') by Rev. Thomas Worcester."

At the first meeting James Nicholson was chosen president, U. D. Beall, secretary, and Adam Miller Wagar, treasurer, the last of whom remains an officer and loyal friend of the church of this time. The present house of worship of the Rockport Society was built about the year 1848. Towards the building Mr. Nicholson was the principal subscriber, while the land on which it is situated came from the Wagar family. The building was improved and formally dedicated by the Rev. J. P. Stuart in the year 1858, July 4.

In 1849 the Reverend Mr. Hooper temporarily removed with his family from East Rockport to near Grand Rapids, Michigan. There are twenty baptisms recorded as performed by Mr. Hooper. During his incumbency thirteen of the original members were baptized by Rev. Elisha Hibbard in 1849; five others by Rev. Thomas Worcester in 1842; three by Rev. David Powell in 1849; one by Rev. Sabin Hough in 1851. Rev. James Melrose visited the society in 1853, and baptized two persons.

From 1854 to 1857, the society was visited by Rev. Messrs. J. P. Stuart and John H. Williams, and by Willard C. Day, Licentiate. One baptism by Rev. J. H. Williams in 1854 and four by Rev. J. P. Stuart in 1856, are recorded.

Rev. Willard C. Day became pastor of the society October, 1857; he removed with his family from Urbana, Ohio - - - nominal salary of $250.00.

On November 11, 1859, James Nicholson died aged seventy-seven years. September 1861, the Ohio Association held its semi annual meeting in East Rockport. In September 1862 there was held a "District Meeting of the Church in the Western Reserve."

A meeting of the church in the Cleveland district was held November 4 and 5, 1865, at which were present Rev. Messrs. J. R. Hibbard, Charles Hardon.

August, 1866 the church was again repaired. Early in the year 1868, the Rev. W. G. Day resigned, removed with his family to Baltimore, Md. During his pastorate there were added to the roll of membership thirty-four names; twenty-seven baptisms are recorded as performed by him - 3 in Aug. '71, one August, 1872; four marriages were solemnized and twelve funerals conducted.

In September, 1867, Mr. Calvin Day Noble began to read service on Sundays. Mr. Noble continued to officiate half the time until and after his ordination, which took place November 1, 1868. Mr. Noble preached once a month for the society, from December, 1869 to October, 1870. He removed from Cleveland to Chicago, October 1, 1870 and after some years to California.

During the year 1870, Mr. L. P. Mercer, read service ----- continued to serve them----- until September, 1872.

In May, 1871, the society was visited by Rev. Frank Sewall, of Urbana, and four persons were baptized by him. March 24, 1872, a similar visit was paid by Rev. W. H. Benade and one adult person was baptized by him and one confirmed ----- communion was administered to fourteen persons. No regular services were held, September, 1872 till April, 1873. After which Mr. John Farrow conducted services till July. Rev. John S. Saul became pastor ---- in July, 1873. --- September 26, 28 of the same year ----- it is recorded that Solomon Hogan Spencer was baptized by Rev. J. P. Stuart, and licensed to preach. Two other adult baptisms were performed. Mr. M. C. Browne was also licensed to preach. ----- Mr. Saul resigned and moved away early in 1876. The Rev. George T. Stearns became pastor, in May, 1876.
